Section 1.2 Compliance. All present or future owners, tenants, future tenants or any other person who might use the facilities of the Hidden River Ranch in any manner, are subject to the regulations set forth in these Bylaws. No person other than an owner of a Ranch Site may be a member of the corporation and a membership may not be transferred except in connection with the conveyance or transfer of the Ranch Site; provided, however, that such membership may be assigned to the holder of a mortgage or Deed of Trust as further security for the loan secured by the lien of the mortgage holder upon the Ranch Site.

Section 2.5 Person. The term "person" for the purpose of membership shall include a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust, joint venture or other legal entity that has valid title to any Ranch Site. Any officer, director, shareholder, partner, or trustee of such entity may exercise the membership rights of the entity and shall further be entitled to serve on the board of directors and as an officer of the Corporation.

Section 2.6 Termination. Such membership shall terminate without any formal corporate action whenever such person ceases to own a Ranch Site, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former Ranch Site owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with Hidden River Ranch Association during the period of such ownership and membership in this corporation, or impair any rights or remedies which the Board of Directors of the corporation or others may have against such former owner and member arising out of or in any way connected with such ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.

Section 3.5 Voting of Proxies. At all meetings of the members, a member may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. ARTICLE VIII

The board of directors shall provide a corporate seal that shall be circular in form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the state of incorporation and the word, "SEAL".

ARTICLE IX
Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or director of the corporation under the provisions of these Bylaws or under the provisions of the laws of the State of Colorado, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE X
Indemnification of Officers and Directors

The corporation shall indemnify every officer or director and their heirs, executors and administrators against all loss, costs and expense, including attorneys' fees, reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their being or having been an officer or director of the corporation, except as to matters as to which they shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a settlement, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the corporation is advised by counsel that the persons to be indemnified have not been guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of their duties as such officer or director in relation to the matter involved. The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such officer or director may be entitled. All liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses incurred or suffered by the corporation by reason of or arising out of or in connection with the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the corporation as common expenses; provided, however, that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to obligate the corporation to indemnify any member who is or has been an officer or director of the corporation with respect to any duties or obligations assumed or liabilities incurred by them under and by virtue of the Declaration of Protective Covenants of Hidden River Ranch as an individual owner of a Ranch Site covered hereby and not as a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE XI
Obligation of the Ranch Site Owners

Section 11.1 Assessments. Except as is otherwise provided in the Declaration of Protective Covenants of Hidden River Ranch, all Ranch Site owners shall be obligated to pay the regular and any special assessments imposed by the corporation to meet the common expenses of the corporation. A member shall be deemed to be in good standing and entitled to vote at any annual meeting or at a special meeting of members, within the meaning of these Bylaws if, and only if, such members shall have fully paid all assessments made or levied against them and the Ranch Site owned by them as of the date of such meeting. The corporation shall have the authority to impose liens for nonpayment as set forth in the Declaration of Protective Covenants of Hidden River Ranch.

Section 11.2 Rules and Regulations. The board of directors shall have the power to establish, make and enforce compliance with such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the operation, use and occupancy of Hidden River Ranch with the right to amend the same from time to time.

ARTICLE XII
Lien for Non-Payment of Fees

All costs, charges and fees billed in the manner above set forth and not paid within thirty days from the date of billing, together with interest thereon, shall constitute a lien on the Ranch Site of the non-paying Ranch Site owner in favor of the Association. Such lien shall be superior to all other liens and encumbrances upon such Ranch Site except only:

12.1 Tax and assessment liens on the Ranch Site, or any liens of any governmental authority; and

12.2 All sums unpaid on a first mortgage or Deed of Trust of record.

Provided further, the corporation shall have all such powers granted to it as to the enforcement, lien priority, and rights of collection as are set forth in the Colorado Common Interest Ownership Act as now exists and as may be hereafter amended from time to time.

To evidence such lien the Association may prepare a written notice of lien setting forth the amount of the unpaid bill, the name of the record owner of the Ranch Site and a description thereof. Such notice may be recorded in the records of Gunnison County, Colorado. Such lien shall attach from the date of failure of payment of the bill, and will include the amount of the bill remaining unpaid, accrued interest thereon, and all fees and costs incurred by the Association in the preparation and recording of said notice of lien and a release thereof. Said lien may be enforced by foreclosure in the same manner as foreclosure of a mortgage. In such foreclosure, the Ranch Site owner shall be required to pay the costs and expenses for such proceedings, the costs and expenses for filing the notice of lien and all reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Association. The Ranch Site owner shall also be required to pay to the Association the monthly bills for the Ranch Site during the period of foreclosure. The Association shall have the power to bid in the Ranch Site at foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same.

All costs, charges and fees billed in the manner above set forth and not paid within thirty days from the date of billing, together with interest thereon, shall constitute a lien on the Ranch Site of the non-paying Ranch Site owner in favor of the corporation. Such lien shall be superior to all other liens and encumbrances upon such Ranch Site except only (1) tax and assessment liens on the Ranch Site, or any liens of any governmental authority and (2) all sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record, including all unpaid obligatory advances made pursuant to such mortgage.

ARTICLE XIII Amendments

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new bylaws adopted by the board of directors at any regular meeting upon an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the entire membership of the board of directors.
