The Association may require a deposit equal to the anticipated actual cost of the requested records. The Association may impose a reasonable charge, which may be collected in advance to cover the costs of labor and material, for copies of association records. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production and reproduction of the records. If after payment of the deposit it is determined that the actual cost was more than the deposit, Owner shall pay such amount prior to delivery of the copies. If after payment of the deposit it is determined that the actual cost was less than the deposit, the difference shall be returned to the Owner with the copies. Failure to pay such deposit shall be valid grounds for denying Owner copies of such records.
