FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

As a member of Truck Insurance Exchange, we want you to understand the basics of the operation of an Exchange because, as you will see below, you are an owner of the Exchange.

What is an Exchange?

An Exchange is an insurance organization, which operates in most ways like any other insurance company, but with a few key differences. Truck Insurance Exchange was organized under a provision in the California Insurance Code, which allows insureds to "exchange" policies with other insureds. Because the insureds cannot practically be involved in actually issuing policies, collecting premium, paying commissions to agents, etc., they appoint a third party - called an "attorney-in-fact" (AIF) - to perform those duties on their behalf for a fee. That appointment is made through a document called a "Subscription Agreement." You were asked to sign a Subscription Agreement at the time you applied for insurance with Truck Insurance Exchange and that is how you became a member (aka subscriber).

Who owns the Exchange?

You do. Subscribers of the Exchange are owners until such time as they no longer have insurance from the Exchange. Subscribers elect a Board of Governors which supervises the financial affairs of the Exchange and the performance of the AIF in conformity with the Subscription Agreement terms.

Why is an AIF fee paid to Truck Underwriters Association (TUA)?

Under the Subscription Agreement mentioned above, members appoint TUA to perform certain of the tasks, such as policy issuance and collection of premium, which are involved in running an insurance operation. The Subscription Agreement specifies an AIF fee of 20 percent of premium, although TUA has taken less than that amount.

What is TUA?

TUA is a wholly owned subsidiary of Farmers Group, Inc. (FGI), which is part of the Zurich Insurance Group, Ltd (ZIG), a Swiss company. Neither TUA, FGI nor ZIG has any ownership interest in Truck Insurance Exchange, which is owned by its subscribers (insureds).

How was your premium dollar spent by Truck Insurance Exchange in 2021?

Your premium dollar covers Exchange costs including losses incurred, acquisition costs, taxes, license fees, the AIF fee, and any contributions to surplus. For 2021, the AIF fee was 14.4% of the premium dollar, which included the AIF profit of 6.68% of the premium dollar for that year.

Can the Exchange lose money?

If premiums collected exceed claims payments and other expenses (including the fee for the AIF), then the Exchange retains those net premium earnings (as contributions to surplus). If premiums are not sufficient to cover claims and expenses, the Exchange will lose money. That's one reason it is important to build surplus to pay future losses. The AIF does not participate in claims losses and does not enjoy any net premium earnings. Importantly, subscribers are not responsible for any losses the Exchange might suffer.

How can I exercise my right to vote?

You may exercise your voting rights in any of the following ways:

1. By attending the annual members' meeting in Woodland Hills, CA on March 21, 2023 at 2 PM,
2. Electronically through your Farmers.com account (voting will be available from January 1, 2023 to March 10, 2023 and you will be required to create a Farmers.com account if you do not already have one), or
3. Through mail by requesting a paper proxy from the Subscriber Relations Office (completed proxies must be received by March 10, 2023)

Where can I get more information about the Exchange, or obtain a paper proxy?

You can go to www.farmers.com/about-us for most questions. If you have additional questions or want to obtain a paper proxy along with a postage paid envelope to confidentially return your proxy, please contact:

Premium Change Notice

Re: Renewal of 60485-05-43

Dear Valued Customer:

We want to take this opportunity to thank you for choosing Farmer[®] Business Insurance and to share some important information. Your policy renewal date is approaching soon and based on current underwriting information in our files, your renewal notice will reflect an increase in premium over the prior year. Please keep in mind that this increase may be due to a combination of factors including policy changes you may have requested, changes in the economic factors affecting the risk, such as property values, payrolls or sales volume, or rate factor changes made by us in response to rising claims and other costs. The level of risk associated with this policy is not commensurate with the current premium level. Accordingly, please be advised that the renewal premium will be $ 25,873.00.

We know the protection of your business is important to your success and we're honored that you've chosen Farmers Business Insurance. If you would like to discuss your upcoming renewal, we recommend you contact your Farmers Insurance agency at 970-641-3641

Sincerely,
TRUCK INSURANCE EXCHANGE

Notice Regarding An Increase In Building Ordinance Coverage Limits

Thank you for choosing Farmers® for your insurance needs. We are committed to offering the best possible products and services and we want to keep you informed of an update to your policy.

After careful review of your coverage, we have determined that it is appropriate to increase your limit of insurance for the Building Ordinance and Law coverage parts pertaining to the cost of Demolition and the Increased Cost of Construction.

The new amount of insurance provided reflects the new limit of 5% of the insured building value. Please refer to your Declarations page for the new limits. The new premium for this coverage is reflected in your renewal offer. This change is important due to a combination of factors including economic conditions that have led to increased costs of labor and materials. We want you to have the coverage necessary in the event of a loss. This new limit will be effective at 12:01 A.M. on the date of your renewal.

This notice is for informational purposes only; it is not a part of your insurance contract, nor is it a substitute for reviewing your policy. Please take a moment to carefully review your policy and its attached endorsements to better understand the terms and conditions of your coverage.

Dear Valued Customer,

Have the growth of your business and rising labor costs reduced the accuracy of the payroll or revenue shown on your policy? Have increased costs and inflationary trends reduced the protection provided by your policy? Building and Business Personal Property insurance limits, once adequate, may no longer meet today's repair or replacement costs.

To help compensate for these inflationary trends, the limits of insurance for Building and/or Business Personal Property coverages have been increased by a modest percentage. To keep your policy current with rising labor costs and normal business growth, the payroll and/or revenue have also been increased by a modest percentage.

This renewal offer includes the adjusted limits of insurance, payroll, revenue, and premium for your policy. The adjustments are relatively small, and they're based on estimated increases in the past year's construction and repair costs, as well as other inflationary factors, such as rising labor costs and normal business growth.

These increases do not guarantee adequate coverage for any loss; they are based on estimates. It is possible, for example, that updates or improvements to your property or increased sales might cause your individual needs for coverage to be greater than the amount provided by these adjustments. If you have not reviewed your policy recently, the effects of inflationary changes over time create the likelihood that the increases we made are less than the increases you need for optimal coverage.

These changes are made to better serve your insurance needs, and we encourage you to contact your Farmers[®] agent, who will be pleased to help you with a comprehensive review of your policy.

Acceptance of these changes does not waive the provisions of the coinsurance clause or any other policy clause.

Thank you for choosing Farmers. We appreciate your business.

THIS ENDORSEMENT CHANGES THE POLICY. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.
